Profile

With over 15 years of experience in the film industry, I am a seasoned cinematographer, editor, and writer with a proven track record of delivering high-quality, visually stunning productions. My work has been recognized at prestigious film festivals such as Sundance and Slamdance, where multiple films I have contributed to have been featured and one of which won the Fearless Filmmaker award. I am a highly collaborative and adaptable team player, able to thrive in any production environment. I bring a strong creative vision and a dedication to excellence to every project, working tirelessly to ensure that the final product exceeds the client's expectations. Whether I'm behind the camera or in the editing suite, I am an active and invaluable asset, bringing my unique perspective and skillset to bear on every production.
